

Mr Bruce Boggington,
The Chief Director of Chocolicious,
25 Cocoa Lane,
Toul Tom Pong,
Phnom Penh.

Dear children,

I am writing to inform you of my new and exciting plans. I intend to buy your school garden and hut in order to build a brand new chocolate factory!

The factory will produce delicious Chocolicious Chocolate Bars and will take up all the grassy area at your school and the workers will need to make use of the new garden play area during their lunch time. My factory will provide lots of new jobs for the local people, and best of all, they will receive one free Chocolicious Chocolate Bar of their choice a year!

The wonderful aromas coming from my factories chimneys will float around the playground of your school, making it a very pleasant place to play I'm sure you will agree.

Finally, all children will be given free samples of chocolate (1 square) once the factory is producing chocolate, in about one years' time!

I look forward to seeing you soon,

Yours sincerely,

Bruce Boggington

Mr Bruce Boggington, Chief Director of Chocolicious Chocolate Bars.
